

COLLEGE CREDIT PLUS

Memorandum of Understanding By and between

The University of Akron
And

Brecksville-Broadview Heights City School District
2019 – 2020 School Year

1. STATEMENT OF WORK

The University of Akron, hereinafter called The University, will collaborate with Brecksville-Broadview Heights City School District, hereinafter called The District, to provide instructional services to qualifying students for University Credit.

2. THE PROGRAM

This College Credit Plus program is available to qualified students enrolled in The District. It is not intended to be a substitute for the academic programs, social growth opportunities, or other educational experiences provided by Ohio's schools. Rather, it is designed to provide enhanced access to university curricula for qualified students. This program hopes to increase the university attendance rate in The University's region by making university courses more readily available.

3. PARTICULARS

- A. Instructional Services: Unless otherwise agreed by the parties, College Credit Plus courses will be taught in one of five formats:

A1. High School Teacher as Adjunct - Members of the high school faculty who are determined by The University and the discipline specific departments to qualify as adjunct faculty may teach a University course (using a University syllabus and University textbooks and examinations) for students through College Credit Plus as determined by The University. The class will simultaneously carry University and high school credit.

A2. On-Line Course Delivery - A member of the University faculty (as determined by The University) may teach a course on-line for qualified students through College Credit Plus. The class will simultaneously carry University and high school credit.

A3. Distance Learning Delivery - A member of the University faculty (as determined by The University) may teach a course via Distance Learning for qualified students through College Credit Plus. The class will simultaneously carry University and high school credit.

A4. UA Faculty to High School Site - A member of the University faculty (as determined by The University) may teach a course at the high school site for qualified students through College Credit Plus. The class will simultaneously carry University and high school credit.

A5. High School Student to UA Campus (Any Site) – Qualified students may take a course on the campus of The University through College Credit Plus. The class will simultaneously carry University and high school credit.

- B. All required textbooks and other learning materials, including access codes, will be the responsibility of the school district.
- C. Student Participation: Students interested in participating in this program must apply to The University for College Credit Plus. Determination of qualification will be made according to the standards of The University. Qualifying students will be eligible to enroll in these College Credit Plus classes for the fall, spring and summer semesters. Students must work with the Guidance Office at The District to ensure their high school requirements and District policies for graduation are satisfied.

Students will also be required to work closely with their University academic adviser to assure that all deadlines and requirements are met.

Necessary tutoring for special education students and accommodations for ADA qualifying students will be the responsibility of The District in consultation with The University. College Credit Plus students will have access to student resources at The University.

Students must remain eligible to continue to participate in the College Credit Plus program based on the State of Ohio guidelines.

4. CURRICULUM

- A. Course Schedule: Courses offered at The District will be determined by The District AND The University, and will fall within the State of Ohio guidelines. Initial discussions regarding the course schedule for the upcoming school year will take place at meetings with the appropriate personnel from The University and The District. Changes to the course schedule will be made only upon agreement of both parties.
- B. Class Composition: All students in a class offered through College Credit Plus at The District must qualify for and be enrolled through College Credit Plus.
- D. Courses will explicitly follow University course syllabi and include all required exams, assignments and student learning assessments. Course instructors will maintain all privileges, responsibilities, and expectations as a University adjunct faculty member, including in-class evaluations by University personnel and student course evaluations.

5. TERM

The services described in this Agreement will be provided for the 2019 - 2020 academic year.

6. CANCELLATION

This MOU may be terminated only as follows:

Upon written notice given no less than sixty (60) day prior to the expiration of the then-current term, if sufficient funding is no longer available from the State of Ohio.

7. COST SHARING

The District will be assessed for College Credit Plus as described below:

Format 1: The District will be assessed for students taking College Credit Plus courses at the high school, through Particular A1, based on the following formula:

Ohio Department of Higher Education Floor per credit hour x number of credit hours x number of students = assessed amount

Format 2: The District will be assessed for students taking College Credit Plus courses at the high school, through Particulars A2 or A3, based on the following formula:

$83.00 per credit hour x number of credit hours x number of students = assessed amount

Format 3: The District will be assessed for students taking College Credit Plus courses on the campus (any site) of The University, through Particular A4, based on the following formula:

$123.00 per credit hour x number of credit hours x number of students = assessed amount

Format 4: The District will be assessed for students taking College Credit Plus courses on the campus (any site) of The University, through Particular A5, based on the following formula:

8. ENTIRETY OF AGREEMENT

This Agreement, including Exhibit A constitutes the entire understanding between the parties with respect to the subject matter hereof and supersedes any and all prior understandings and agreements, oral and written, relating hereto. Any amendment hereof must be in writing and executed by authorized representatives of both parties.

9. NONDISCRIMINATION

Each party agrees to comply with all applicable laws regarding affirmative action and equal employment opportunity in connection with this Agreement and each party further agrees not to discriminate against any person or group of persons on the basis of race, color, creed, sex, age, national origin, ancestry, religion or disability.

10. PUBLICITY

No publicity containing any reference to The University, other than the fact that the Agreement exist between the parties, shall be used by either party, except upon prior approval by the other party.

11. GOVERNING LAW

The terms of the Agreement shall be governed and construed under the laws of the State of Ohio.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, the parties hereto, intending to be legally bound hereby, have duly executed this Agreement the day and year above written.
