Southeastern Baseball Classic
Hartsville, South Carolina
April 13-17, 2020

The Southeastern Baseball Classic is a high school baseball tournament located in Hartsville, South Carolina. The tournament has been operating since 1997 maintaining the following mission:

The Southeastern Baseball Classic aims to promote the game of baseball, to enhance the lives of athletes through competition and scholarship, and to involve the community by assembling sportsmen in tournament play.

The Southeastern Baseball Classic combines baseball and hospitality for a unique experience for players, coaches, families and fans, including:

- Hospitality Night: Team pictures, cookout, player gifts and contests
- Team Hotel Rooms (6 rooms for four nights for those staying)
- Each Team has a Host Family
- Church provided breakfast
- Four Games at Jimmy White Park

Goals of the Trip

- Play in an environment where the weather is more cooperative in comparison to Northeast Ohio
- To offer a unique opportunity for the team to bond and build unity through the experience
- To expose our athletes to regional and national competition, as well as to potential exposure are colleges & universities
