

BRECKSVILLE-BROADVIEW HTS. CITY SCHOOL DISTRICT

"where fine education is a heritage"

SPECIAL EDUCATION STUDY, MAY 2020

COMMENDATIONS

- Supportive, dedicated Staff
- Ample Evidence of Instructional Best Practices
- Inclusive Practices in Extra Curricular Activities
- Staffing is Appropriate
- Achievement Data for SWD is on Par or Exceeds Similar Districts
- Community embraces Students with Special Needs

Key Areas for Continued Growth

- Relationship building
- Communication
- Compliance and Procedures
- Data Driven Decision Making

RELATIONSHIP BUILDING

- Us vs. Them Attitude
- Re-establish trust with all stakeholders
- Work as a team and communicate clear expectations
- Develop protocols to engage the stakeholders on a regular basis to get feedback.
- Follow through with district plans and guidance

COMMUNICATION

- Follow through on received communications
- Be proactive and anticipate situations
- Raise professional efficacy at the building level by empowering administration to be the district representative
- Development of monthly parent newsletters and resources
- Regular SPED staff meetings to ensure consistency among the buildings

COMPLIANCE AND PROCEDURES

- Create a Special Education Handbook for parents and staff
- Professional learning on IEP compliance for all staff
- Development of transition plans and district schedule for vertical transistions

DATA DRIVEN DECISION MAKING

- Progress monitoring
- ESY decision making
- Staffing decisions
- Relaunching with Fidelity- RTI process and using the data to placement decision

PLAN IMPLEMENTATION

- New Director of Special Education
- Creation of Special Education Coordinator
- Develop a 3 to 5 year timeline of how to address the recommendations in the study

QUESTIONS?

BRECKSVILLE-BROADVIEW HTS.
CITY SCHOOL DISTRICT

"where fine education is a heritage"