Heights District

Jennifer Worgull is a senior from Brecksville-Broadview Heights High School enrolled in CVCC's Education Professions program, instructed by Mrs. Everhart. From a young age, Jennifer had a passion for becoming a hair stylist, which is what initially brought her to CVCC; however, after shadowing the Education Professions program, she really enjoyed it and felt that was the best fit for her. Her favorite part of the program so far has been the field experiences as well as the in-depth class discussions. Essays and writing can be a challenging part of class; however, it adds to the quality of knowledge gained within the program. Jennifer really enjoys that CVCC is a population of students from differing areas that provides choices for so many to explore their passions.

Outside of school, Jennifer is involved in Venture Crew, which is a sub group of the Boy Scouts, focusing more on outdoor endeavors and community outreach. This organization has brought Jennifer many quality friendships and memories. She is eagerly awaiting an upcoming backpacking trip to New Mexico! Additionally, Jennifer enjoys hiking, baking, and painting. Looking ahead, Jennifer plans to attend Tri-C for a couple of years, and then plans to transfer to Kent State University to pursue an education degree. Jennifer can see herself possibly pursuing many avenues, including teaching History of English for middle or high school, or even becoming a librarian, which is a field she's always loved. She could also see herself go for a more nonconventional route and travel the country in an RV selling art. Whatever you do Jennifer, CVCC is thrilled to be a part of your journey!
