

Clinical Experiences Agreement
Ohio University's Patton College of Education and the Brecksville-Broadview Heights City Schools

For the 2024-2025 and 2025-2026 school years, Brecksville-Broadview Heights City Schools and OHIO University's Patton College of Education, Athens, Ohio mutually agree to:

I. Activities and Services

Descriptions of Clinical Experience requirements are distributed to the schools and Mentor Teachers when arrangements for placements are made. Included in these descriptions are expectations for Ohio University Candidates and the Mentor Teachers. It shall be Ohio University's responsibility to provide assurance that all students placed have completed the application for the pre-service teacher permit per Ohio Revised Code 3319.0812, that all students will have completed BCI and FBI criminal background checks, and that the pre-service teacher permit has been issued (or that the student already holds an active credential issued by the State Board of Education, such as a substitute teaching license or educational aide permit).

II. Roles and Responsibilities

The Patton College teacher candidates in the Brecksville-Broadview Heights City Schools are expected to conform to the rules and policies of the school district and to approach their work in a responsible manner, i.e. regular attendance, professional ethical behavior, etc. School district mentor teachers who work with Ohio University teacher candidates become teacher educators, responsible for guiding and directing the growth of the pre-service teachers in cooperation with The Patton College. The Brecksville-Broadview Heights City Schools agrees to adhere to the state regulations and laws pertaining to teacher candidate and professional intern placement.

III. Provisions for Solving Problems and the Coordination of Ongoing Activities

If problems arise, the following Patton College office should be consulted:

The Patton College of Education's OHIO Center of Clinical Practice in Education 740.593.9989

This agreement dated October 2, 2024 will remain effective until notification of intent to change or terminate or the fulfillment of the Clinical Experience assignment.
