Part 1

Please describe this student's behavior. How does the student respond to authority? How does he/she relate to peers and participate in group projects with other students? What talents, interests and skills does this student have that will contribute to an international exchange experience? Please give examples.

Madina is a well-mannered smart and sociable student. She always approaches politely with the questions concerning academic materials and homework. I really appreciate her curiosity and responsibility in English classes. She mostly prefers group discussions, creative projects such as shooting videos about cultures, interesting facts, street interviews with her team.

Please comment on the student's motivation in school and study habits.

Madina has a strong desire to learn something new. She can spend hours reading books and discussing her impression of those books. She has set a good balance of academic studies as well as extracurricular school activities like debates and Olympiads.

Comments:

I have been teaching Madina for more than 2 months but this short period was good enough to get on well and participate together in two tours of the English language Olympiad. I am sure she is a good candidate for such intercultural and educational opportunity of the FLEX program.
